

RABIES REPORT CARD AT THE MIDWAY MILESTONE TO THE 2030 GOAL OF ELIMINATING THE DISEASE

59,000 PEOPLE
around the world die from rabies each year

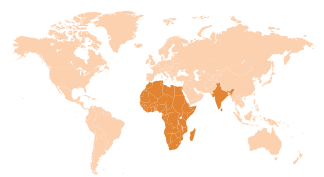

100 CHILDREN
die from rabies each day

Most human rabies deaths result from bites from rabid dogs

Rabies results in death 100% OF THE TIME once signs appear

highest-impacted regions

A proven way to eliminate rabies is mass vaccination, reaching at least 70% of dogs

MERCK ANIMAL HEALTH IS ENGAGED IN THE FIGHT AGAINST RABIES

Merck Animal Health is committed to eliminating rabies by 2030 through donation of its rabies vaccine and other resources to organizations fighting this disease in the world's most at-risk regions.

OUR PARTNERS

Merck Animal Health is supporting the Afya Serengeti Project to help eliminate rabies in the Serengeti and other at-risk areas.

Merck Animal Health supports Mission Rabies vaccination efforts in countries such as India, Malawi, Uganda, Sri Lanka, Thailand and Tanzania.

THE IMPACT OF THE AFYA PROJECT IN THE SERENGETI

Each year, vaccines from the Afya Serengeti Project result in:

23
HUMAN LIVES SAVED

50,000 DOGS

VACCINATED EACH YEAR

0 REPORTED RABIES OUTBREAKS

in areas where 70% of dogs have been vaccinated

MISSION RABIES IS MAKING A DIFFERENCE

SINCE ITS FOUNDING IN 2013, MISSION RABIES HAS*:

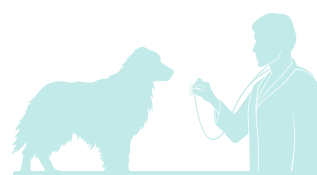

VACCINATED

608,933
TOTAL DOGS VACCINATED

REACHED

1,215,346
CHILDREN EDUCATED

TRAINED

80
Veterinarians

*as of June 2017

100% elimination of canine rabies from wildlife

CELEBRATED

milestone of zero human rabies cases in model city of Ranchi, India